[JOAN] Okay. Let's get started. Do you all have the agenda?

[JOAN] The purpose of this meeting is to talk about our relationship with Sunset Computers since the merger.

[JOAN] The five of us are here because we do the most business with them.

[JOAN] The first item on the agenda is news about Sunset. Are you all aware that Archie Morgan, their CEO, has resigned?

[HARRY] I didn't know that.

[SALLY] No, neither did I.

[JOAN] Yes, well, our relationship with him just wasn't working. Sunset's chief financial officer, Mary Ozaki, will also be leaving.

[SIMON] That's good news.

[SIMON] I'm sorry, but it's time for a change over there.

[JOAN] Okay. Let's move on to the next item.

[JOAN] I'll probably be flying out to meet the Sunset executives on Monday.

[JOAN] The CEO's in a meeting about this right now. I'll have more information later today.

[TODD] Okay.

[JOAN] The last item on the agenda is our problems with Sunset.

[JOAN] I've been hearing some complaints from different people here, but I need more detailed information.

[SALLY] If you ask me, the primary problem's communication, or lack of it.

[JOAN] Could you be more specific, Sally?

[SALLY] Well, they're very slow in answering our questions.

[SALLY] For instance, just yesterday, I phoned their director of marketing and left a message. Then I sent an email. Still no answer.

[HARRY] Do they even have cellphones?

[HARRY] I'm serious. I can't get cellphone numbers from them.

[TODD] A huge challenge for me is figuring out who's responsible for what.

[SIMON] I have to say that their director of engineering, Ed Fife, is incredible. He gets me what I need quickly, and it's always accurate.

[JOAN] Hmm. This is all very interesting.

[JOAN] All right, so communication has really been the big issue with Sunset.

[JOAN] What can we do about it? I mean, when I'm there on Monday, in a meeting with them, what solution can I propose?

[SALLY] Well, a new CEO and CFO is a good start, but is it enough? One way to solve the problem might be to replace even more managers.

[SIMON] I'm not sure I agree with that.

[TODD] And I really disagree. We have to be careful about their morale. They're losing their two biggest executives. That's a huge change already.

[HARRY] Well, at least let's send them to some communication training. They're awful!

[JOAN] That's a possibility.

[TODD] I'd like to propose some formal team-building.

[JOAN] Okay. What do you have in mind?

[TODD] How difficult would it be to bring some of the Sunset managers here for, say, a week?

[JOAN] Well, it's not in the budget, but...

[SALLY] I really like that idea. We need to meet these people.

[HARRY] I think so, too. If they come here and see how we do things...

[SIMON] Let's take that one step further and send people over there, too. We need to start building personal relationships with them.

[JOAN] Well, I think those are all excellent ideas. I can't make any promises, but I'll try to find some money for them.

[JOAN] So, I just had a short meeting with our CEO, David.

[JOAN] I've been given the task of coming up with a plan of coordination between our two companies. I'll be flying out there on Monday.

[HARRY] Congratulations!

[JOAN] Thank you, Harry. Now, as I was saying, it'll be my job to get the two companies working together smoothly.

[JOAN] I'll probably be flying back and forth for the next few weeks. Todd will be in charge here whenever I'm at Sunset.

[JOAN] That's going to involve a lot of planning, and I don't have much time, so, uh, let's conclude this meeting quickly.

[JOAN] Now, where was I? Oh, yes. As a next step, in the next week or so, please keep me informed about any problems that you're having with Sunset.

[JOAN] Give me details. I'd really appreciate your input on this.

[JOAN] Let me see. I'll, uh, follow up on the idea of team building, and I'll also send an email summarizing this meeting.

[JOAN] Oh, and, uh, one more thing: This discussion is confidential. Nothing leaves this room.

[TODD] Yes, please. No talking about firing people at Sunset or flying them here. Those poor people have enough rumors to worry about already.

By the end of the meeting, I hope we (will have) come up with some creative ways to improve communication between our teams. Please speak freely. This will be a brainstorming session. There are no bad ideas. Jack is (going to be) writing down all of our ideas so we (won't) lose anything. OK, let's get started.

[JOAN] So, I just had a short meeting with our CEO, David.
[JOAN] I've been given the task of coming up with a plan of coordination between our two companies. I'll be flying out there on Monday.
[HARRY] Congratulations!
[JOAN] Thank you, Harry. Now, as I was saying, it'll be my job to get the two companies working together smoothly.
[JOAN] I'll probably be flying back and forth for the next few weeks. Todd will be in charge here whenever I'm at Sunset.
[JOAN] That's going to involve a lot of planning, and I don't have much time, so, uh, let's conclude this meeting quickly.
[JOAN] Now, where was I? Oh, yes. As a next step, in the next week or so, please keep me informed about any problems that you're having with Sunset.
[JOAN] Give me details. I'd really appreciate your input on this.
[JOAN] Let me see. I'll, uh, follow up on the idea of team building, and I'll also send an email summarizing this meeting.
[JOAN] Oh, and, uh, one more thing: This discussion is confidential. Nothing leaves this room.
[TODD] Yes, please. No talking about firing people at Sunset or flying them here. Those poor people have enough rumors to worry about already.
[JOAN] Okay. That's it for now. Thank you all for coming.
[JOAN] Uh, Todd and Simon. Could you stay behind?

Now, as I was saying ... 现在, 正如我所说的.....

Moving on, let's discuss the plan to expand overseas.	下一步，让我们来讨论一下海外扩张的问题。
Oh, and one more thing: we need to discuss a change in employee insurance.	哦，还有一件事。我们要讨论一下员工保险的一个变动。
有时候讨论会偏题。如果讨论偏题，可以用这些表达来带回主题：
Now, as I was saying, our competitive situation in Europe has changed.	正像我刚才说的，我们在欧洲的竞争局面已经发生了变化。
Now, where was I? Oh, yes – the sales figures for last quarter.	我刚说到哪儿了？哦，是的，上个季度的销售额。
Getting back to my point, I think a merger is not an option.	回到我的观点，我认为并购是不可取的。

[JOAN] Okay, so David met with the board of directors this morning. They've decided to move quickly to integrate the two companies.

[TODD] Smart move. Finally.

[JOAN] Yes. Simon made me aware of major problems there three months ago. I did tell David about it, but, CEOs sometimes just...

[JOAN] Anyway, after listening to Sally and Harry today, I wish that I'd pushed David more. Now the board is not happy.

TODD] We all should've pushed David more.

[JOAN] Yes, maybe we should have. But what's done is done. Now, I need help with a decision. The board has decided not to replace the CEO of Sunset.

[SIMON] I'm not surprised.

[TODD] It's a reasonable move. If we're integrating the two companies, we don't need two CEOs.

[JOAN] But we'll be hiring a chief operating officer for Sunset.

[SIMON] A COO? That makes sense. Someone has to be in charge over there.

[JOAN] And I was offered the job.

[SIMON] I'm glad that you're staying. And I think that I know why I'm in this meeting.

[JOAN] Tell me about your friend, Ed Fife.

Hi, Sarah. Well, it was a very interesting meeting. There were a lot of different opinions. The COO suggested that the board move quickly to accept the government's offer. The CFO disagreed. He proposed that they wait until the financial results from the next quarter were available before making any decision. The CEO agreed that they shouldn't move too quickly, but she also decided they should schedule another meeting with the government for next week. I'll let you know what happens. Jim

Hi, John.

Here's a summary of the meeting we had this morning with Judy.

First, she decided not to go forward with the merger because we still need more information. She also suggested we move quickly to get a replacement for

Ken. Finally, she proposed a team-building activity in the summer.

That's all for now. Let me know if you have any questions.
